IIPSJ

MISSION

The Fulfilment of the Social Justice Obligations of Intellectual Property Protection by Embracing the Principles of Equitable Access, Inclusion, and Empowerment.

ACCESS INCLUSION EMPOWERMENT

OUR WORK

"Social justice includes not only access to, but also inclusion in the social, cultural, and economic life of the country. Indeed, it extends beyond—to full participation in and ability to affect the direction of civil society in all its manifestations."

1. Scholarly examination of IP law from the social justice perspective ;
2. Advocacy for social justice-cognizant interpretation, application, & revision of IP law;
3. Efforts to increase the diversity of the IP legal bar; and
4. Programs to empower historically and currently disadvantaged and marginalized communities through the development, protection, use, and exploitation of IP.

IP SJ DEFINED

1. Access for all to the IP eco system.
2. Inclusion of everyone in IP endeavor and contribution to society.
3. Empowerment of people to participate fully in the economic, social, and cultural life of the country.
